

Use the Bicycling layer on Google Maps to find the best route from your home to the Northeast Pioneers Greenway at Gateway Road and Talbot Avenue. Cycle along the greenway until you reach the north end of the path.

At this point, use the active transport underpass to cross the Perimeter Highway. Continue on Raleigh, north of the Perimeter, until you reach Hoddinott Road, then make a right.

Turn left onto the Duff Roblin Trail. Continue past the Dunning Road intersection. When you reach the three-way fork, take the right most trail toward the floating bridge and cross the Floodway. Once across the Floodway, take the next right and cross Highway 59 using the active transport bridge. Continue on the paved until you reach the end on the Duff Roblin Trail, then turn right toward North Drive.

Once at the stop sign at North Drive, turn left onto the shoulder on the same side of the road.

If you are a Quiet Camper – stay on this paved shoulder until you see the Quiet Campground Box Office, you can queue here for wristbanding.

If you are a Festival Camper, continue on North Drive past the Quiet Campground turn off. Once you reach the four-way intersection where North, South, Festival Drives and the East Beach Road meet, turn left onto Festival Drive, remaining on the same shoulder. Continue on Festival

Drive to the pedestrian crosswalk and cross the road. Take the trail path to the Main Gate Box Office. Here you can ride up to the “walk-up” kiosk to exchange your ticket for a wristband.

Once you’ve got your wristband, head back across the crosswalk to enter the Festival Campground!
